

1. Find the definition for the following terms

- a. warm-blooded,
- b. cold- blooded,
- c. backbone,
- d. lay eggs,
- e. give birth,
- f. breathe with lungs,
- g. breathe through gills

- 1. It can not regulate its body temperature themselves
- 2. To bring air in and out of the body
- 3. The series of bones that run along the centre of the back
- 4. To obtain oxygen from water
- 5. To give birth by pushing an egg out of the animal body
- 6. It can maintain a relatively constant and warm body temperature
- 7. To produce new life into the world

2. Match the opposite terms in the context of animal behaviour. (Write the meaning next to them).

Gills	Lay eggs
Land	Exoskeleton
Land	Lungs
Give birth	Water
Skeleton	One piece
Segmented	Sky

3. Complete the sentences with the following words:

Feathers wings hair fur scales

- 1. Birds are the only animals that have _____. They all have _____, but not all can fly.
- 2. Why do human have body _____?
- 3. A Polar bear has its body covered with _____ to keep it warm.
- 4. Fish and reptiles have their body covered with_____.